

Privacy Policy for Friends of Liam Foundation (FOLF)

We at FOLF respect your right to privacy and comply with our obligations under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). The purpose of this Privacy Statement is to outline how we deal with personal data provided to FOLF while visiting our website.

Any links to other external websites are clearly identifiable as such, and FOLF is not responsible for the content or the privacy policies of these other websites. While we take care of the safety of information on our websites on an ongoing nature, if you are not happy with this Privacy Policy you should not use our website.

Protecting your privacy as a user of FOLF website is important to us and we strive to keep all information relating to you confidential in accordance with this statement.

As part of the normal operation of our services you may voluntarily provide us with information about yourself ("Personal Data"). The purpose of this Privacy Statement is to explain what Personal Data we collect about you, how that Personal Data might be used and how we protect your Personal Data and privacy.

We will be happy to answer any enquiries from you regarding this Privacy Statement, the Personal Data we hold about you or the use we make of it. If you have any queries or comments please contact our data manager: info@friendsofliamfoundation.ie

Site visitors

If you are merely visiting the public areas of FOLF website, we do not collect any Personal Data about you. However, we may automatically collect information about your visits, such as browsing patterns. Information collected in this way does not reveal your contact details or any type of Personal Data. This information is only used in aggregate form to analyse, manage and develop our website and is not linked to any individual.

Third Party

Paypal is used as a 3rd party payment engine for donations through our websites and their privacy policy is available upon request.

Registration for Friends of Liam Foundation Newsletter

If you sign up for our newsletter, we will collect and hold Personal Data about you when you register. The Personal Data collected by us through our website when you sign up for our newsletter include your full name and e-mail address.

If you signed up for our newsletter via a network event or were added because you expressed then we may also hold further information such as your contact telephone number, and address.

In order to send you our digital newsletter your data will be shared with MailChimp.

MailChimp are a data compliant digital communication platform. Your data will only be saved, stored or processed in association with and Your name. Your data will never be shared for any purposes other than to transmit our newsletter or any other communication you have agreed to receive from FOLF only.

Legal requirements

We reserve the right to access and disclose Personal Data to comply with applicable laws and lawful government requests or requests by the authorities investigating suspected illegal activities, to operate our systems properly or to protect ourselves. We also reserve the right to disclose Personal Data to third parties if a complaint arises concerning your use of and Your name, and that use is deemed by us to be inconsistent with the Terms & Conditions.

Public Forums

FOLF may make available reviews, news groups and links to social media networks. Please remember that any Personal Data that you disclose in these areas of media becomes public information and you should exercise caution when deciding to disclose any information on them. Sample media sites or public forum sites may include but are not limited to Facebook, Twitter and Google.

How do we protect your Personal Data?

When you input any Personal Data into Friends of Liam Foundation website or request information from us, we use appropriate physical, electronic and managerial security measures to try to prevent that Personal Data from being accessed by unauthorised persons and to ensure that you may input Personal Data safely.

Cookies

Friends of Liam Foundation use session cookies . A session cookie contains information that is stored in a temporary memory location and then subsequently deleted after the session is completed or the web browser is closed. This cookie stores information that the user has inputted and tracks the movements of the user within the website.

Consent

By accepting the Terms & Conditions or by using the services on the FOLF website, you consent to the collection and use of your Personal Data by us for the purposes outlined above and for any other purpose which is reasonably necessary for the provision or proper administration of service in accordance with the Conditions.

You agree that your Personal Data may be transferred to countries outside the European Economic Area for the purposes described above to countries, which may not provide legal protection of Personal Data equivalent to the level of protection within the Republic Of Ireland.

If you do not wish your Personal Data to be used in the manner set out in this Privacy Statement or the Terms & Conditions please do not use FOLF website.

Changes to our policy

This Privacy Statement is subject to change at any time. We encourage you to review the Privacy Statement regularly for any changes. We will use Personal Data in accordance with the Privacy Statement under which that Personal Data was collected.

This Privacy Statement is part of and Friends of Liam Foundation website Terms & Conditions (“the Conditions”) and all defined terms shall have the same meaning as those in the Conditions.

If you have any questions about this Privacy Statement, or if you wish to request access to your personal information, correct or update your details or raise any privacy concerns you may have, please contact us at info@friendsofliamfoundation.ie